

Terms of Service

Rare ASF Inc.

Version 1.0 | RASF-POL-LP-2026-001

Effective date: October 26, 2026

About these terms

These Terms of Service govern the RareASF.com landing page, waitlist and contact forms (the Site), operated by Rare ASF Inc., a Delaware corporation (Rare ASF, we, us or our). They cover learning about Rare ASF, requesting updates and contacting us. They do not govern future marketplace transactions or other services that require separate terms. Contact us at admin@rareasf.com.

1 Acceptance and eligibility

Please read these Terms before submitting a form. By selecting the agreement checkbox and submitting a waitlist or contact form, you agree to these Terms. You must be at least 18 years old to submit a form. If you act for an organization, you represent that you have authority to do so. Merely visiting the Site does not constitute consent to marketing or a waiver of privacy rights.

2 Landing page and future services

The Site provides company information and allows you to express interest in future services. Joining the waitlist is free and does not create an account, purchase, reservation, ownership interest, investment, guaranteed invitation or right to priority access. Features, eligibility, availability and launch dates may change. Descriptions of planned features are informational and are not guarantees that those features will launch.

3 Information you submit

Provide accurate contact information that you are authorized to use. Do not submit another person's information without authority. Do not send passwords, payment card details, government identification, wallet recovery phrases or other sensitive information through these forms. You retain ownership of your messages and grant us only the permission reasonably necessary to receive, store and respond to them and administer your request.

4 Communications and privacy

Our Privacy Policy explains how we handle personal information. Joining the waitlist requests email updates about availability, launch and access. You can leave the waitlist or stop these updates by using an unsubscribe option, where provided, or emailing admin@rareasf.com. A contact inquiry permits us to respond to that inquiry; it does not automatically enroll you in marketing. Providing a phone number does not by itself authorize automated marketing calls or texts. Unrelated promotional communications require a separate choice where required by law.

5 Acceptable use

Do not use the Site for unlawful activity, impersonation, harassment, spam or fraudulent submissions. Do not introduce malicious code, bypass security, access information without authorization, interfere with availability or use automated tools to overload the Site or harvest personal information. Nothing in these Terms restricts rights that applicable law makes nonwaivable.

6 Company content and feedback

The Site's branding, text, graphics, software and other company content are owned by Rare ASF or its licensors and protected by applicable law. You may view the Site and share links for lawful purposes. No trademark license or permission to copy, sell or exploit company content is granted except as allowed by law or our written permission. If you voluntarily send product suggestions, we may use them without payment or confidentiality obligations.

unless we agree otherwise in writing; this does not transfer ownership of your personal information or override the Privacy Policy.

7 Third party links

Links to other websites are provided for convenience. Their operators control their content and practices. Review their terms and privacy notices before using them. A link does not by itself mean Rare ASF endorses the operator or its services.

8 Availability and warranties

We may update, suspend or discontinue the Site or waitlist, and may restrict abusive activity. To the extent permitted by law, the Site and informational content are provided as is and as available, without warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose or noninfringement. We do not promise uninterrupted or error free access. These limitations do not exclude warranties or remedies that cannot lawfully be excluded.

9 Responsibility and limitations

To the extent permitted by applicable law, Rare ASF is not liable for indirect, incidental, special or consequential losses arising from use of the free Site or waitlist. This limitation does not apply to fraud, willful misconduct, gross negligence, death or personal injury caused by negligence, or liability that cannot lawfully be limited. These Terms do not impose a fixed monetary cap on direct damages or limit statutory privacy remedies.

10 Governing law and disputes

Delaware law governs these Terms, excluding conflict of law rules, except that mandatory protections under the law applicable to you remain available. Please contact admin@rareasf.com to try to resolve a concern. Unless mandatory law permits or requires otherwise, disputes concerning these Terms may be brought in the state or federal courts located in Delaware, and the parties consent to those courts' jurisdiction. These Terms do not require arbitration or waive class action rights, jury trial rights or access to small claims courts where available.

11 Changes and general provisions

We will post revised Terms with a new effective date. Material changes affecting ongoing waitlist participation will be communicated through the Site or the email address on file, as appropriate, and we will obtain renewed agreement where required. Changes do not retroactively alter accrued rights or prior disputes. If a provision is unenforceable, the remaining provisions continue to apply. A failure to enforce a provision is not a waiver. These Terms govern only the Site activities described above and do not replace a separate signed agreement.
